

The Daily Public Ledger
Maysville Kentucky
November 19, 1907, Page 1.

All the railroads entering Washington now use the new Union Station. The historic old depot of the Baltimore and Potomac (Pennsylvania) where President Garfield was shot in 1882, was abandoned Sunday as a station. The stone and star marking the spot where Garfield fell was stolen by a vandal several years ago. The old depot will be moved and the Mall Park enlarged.
